Offering an elegant yet versatile 'blank canvas' we believe every gathering is unique, deserving generous attention and a bespoke result that will be distinctive, timeless and treasured forever.

The Jewel of the Arts Precinct

We are delighted to present to you this exciting venue, the jewel of the arts precinct, proudly sitting on MacKenzie Hill in the heart of Bendigo.

Built in 1877, 10 MacKenzie Street was originally constructed as a school house by the Anglican All Saints Cathedral. In 2014, after a 15-year search for the 'perfect' heritage building, we purchased this unique property from the Anglican Diocese of Bendigo. We immediately began to transform the site into boutique accommodation, and bespoke wedding/events venue.

The name MacKenzie Quarters encapsulates the location, the school heritage and the reference to all four spaces the precinct offers - The Residence, MacKenzie Hall, MsBatterhams Lounge & The Sunken Garden. We welcomed our first guests to 'The Residence' in 2015, with high acclaim. In February 2020, we launched our state of the art wedding and events venue 'MacKenzie Hall' along with 'MsBatterhams' an intimate basement lounge bar.

We look forward to sharing this wonderful space with you.
